SIR,

Subject: -

I have the honour to state that this letter is in continuation of this office letter No.TRC.61/46-47 dated 15-9-47 in which we have reported the sale of 36 lorries at a cost of Rs.1,34,800/-. The original sanction contained in G.O.No.SD. 242-44/A.142-46-11 dated 10-7-47 was for 51 lorries.

2. The reason why only 36 were sold and not 51 is due to the fact that 11 lorries were in the Districts to be brought by towing and regarding the remaining four more, we were doing our best to put them in working order instead of selling them; but as the auction had been fixed for the 20th August and naturally not wishing to delay the same, the public sale was held and 36 lorries were sold as already reported.

3. Since then, we have managed to put the four lorries mentioned above in working condition and the other 11 which were in the Districts are being towed in. Apart from other difficulties, we were not in a hurry to bring them in, owing to the railway strike and the consequent exercise of control on the use of petrol. So far we have brought in five.

4. Apart from the above, we have now been able to collect submitted to Government. Similarly if we send these lorries, the firms will have to search for spare parts in the open markets. This is the usual practice and owing to spare parts not coming from abroad due to the Dollar difficulty, insufficiency of shipping space and quotas the firms are driven to do this. Very recently a gentleman whom I know has been called upon to pay Rs.75/- for a few spring plates purchased for his cars in the evening bazaar. As these lorries under contemplation would cost us anything between Rs.500/- to Rs.1,000/- for repairs and as it may also take months to put right the lorries, it seems far more satisfactory to auction them, when the prices even for second-hand lorries are going up as found in the auction already held.

7. Out of the 51 mentioned in G.O.No.SD.242-44/A.142-46-11, dated 10-7-47 we have 5 ready for sale and sanction of Government is now solicited for 30 lorries in all (including the 5 already sanctioned) the appended list giving the registered numbers of the lorries.
